Subject: Congratulations!

Our security system was tested last night around 19:30. Two ABS were on their way into town with their shore leave passes, one of the ABS did not match the vessel crew list. The security officer on duty called myself at home. I then called CBP officer Wisecup. He investigated the incident at our facility. He then called myself back about an hour later, congratulating MBT and Columbia Security that we had passed the test. Upon the vessel's arrival the CBP paperwork that the guard shack received was altered to deny or restrict one ABS with a shore pass.

Thank you all for this success. Please thank those personally that do not have access to E-mail.

Regards,

Robert A. Stewart
